DEGREE: Bachelor of ArtsMAJOR or DOUBLE MAJOR: Foreign Languages*OPTION: French*OPTION: German*OPTION: Spanish*SUPPLEMENTARY MAJOR: Latin American Studies*SUPPLEMENTARY MAJOR: Chicano Studies*SUPPLEMENTARY MAJOR: Linguistics*MINORS: French*German*Linguistics*Spanish

Programs of study in the Department of Languages and Linguistics prepare students for a diverse number of professions and provide them with critical skills that compliment many careers in an increasingly interdependent, global marketplace. Students also increase their awareness of the important role language plays in human interaction, on individual and global levels.

The major curriculum plans in each language include balanced groups of courses in language, linguistics, literature, and culture. Students may choose to major, double major, or minor in French, German, or Spanish. Requirements involve 24 credits numbered 300 or above in the major field. Electives needed to bring the upper-division total to 54 are selected with the help of a department advisor who is especially aware of professional opportunities involving languages.

College Second Language Requirement

To meet the second language requirement, the student must do one of the following:

- Complete the normal language course sequence: 111, 112, 211, 212. Students should enter the sequence at their proficiency level. Spanish native speakers should complete the 113, 213, 214 sequence. Students who successfully complete either SPAN 113 or 213 or 214 may not take SPAN 111, 112, 211 or 212 for credit.
- Challenge the 212 level of French, German, Japanese, or Spanish, or the 214 level for the Spanish for Native Speakers, or Portuguese.
- Obtain college certification of completion of three years of one second language at the high school level with a grade of C or higher in the third-year level, (i.e., equivalent to French 212, German 212, Spanish 212, etc.)
- Obtain, from the head of the Department of Languages and Linguistics, certification of a working knowledge of a second language if such language is not taught at New Mexico State University. The student must demonstrate reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills in the language at a minimum of the 212 or equivalent level through examination.
- Obtain certification of a working knowledge of a native American language from the American Indian program director.
- Pass an upper-division course (numbered 300 or above, does not include directed reading, independent study, or practicum) taught in a second language by the Department of Languages and Linguistics.
- Pass C D 476, American Sign Language III with a grade of C or better
- In the case of a foreign student who is required to take the TOEFL exam, the dean will automatically waive the second language requirement if the student scores 500 or above or the equivalent.
- ESL or English language may not be used to fulfill the language requirement.
- Students should satisfy the language requirement as soon as possible and take the necessary courses in the sequence indicated by the advisor.

DEGREE: Bachelor of ArtsMAJOR or DOUBLE MAJOR: Foreign Languages*Departmental Requirements for Majors

All Foreign Language majors are required to take LING 200G and a second language through 212 (or 214 if in the Native Speaker Track of Spanish or taking Portuguese) or equivalent with the approval of the department.

An S grade in a foreign language course must correspond to a C grade or better.

Electives sufficient to bring total credits to 128, including 54 upper-division.

Departmental Requirements for Double Majors

Students can double major in Foreign Languages by completing an option in French, German, or Spanish while completing a different major in another department. The double major must be completed prior to or simultaneously with the Foreign Languages major.

Students who double major in Foreign Languages with an option in either French, German or Spanish are not required to take LING 200G or a second language.

Students who major in Foreign Languages only and who simultaneously fulfill both the French, German and/or Spanish options are not required to take an additional language or LING 200G. This is not a double major as the degree is in Foreign Languages with two options French and Spanish.

An S grade in a foreign language course must correspond to a C grade or better.

Electives sufficient to bring total to 128, including 54 upper-division.

OPTION: FrenchRequirements

FREN 111, 112, Elementary French I, II, FREN 211, 212, Intermediate French I, II, or equivalent

French courses numbered 300 or above—24 credits, must include FREN 313 or FREN 314 and FREN 381 or FREN 382. Other courses selected from the areas of language, literature and culture with the help of the major advisor.
